

17 December 2010

MEDIA STATEMENT

DELAYS TO DESALINATED WATER PRODUCTION

SA Water has been advised by AdelaideAqua, the consortium constructing the Adelaide Desalination Plant, that following a recent review of the construction program first water will now be supplied in late July 2011 and not April 2011 as had been previously advised.

SA Water Chief Executive John Ringham said SA Water is reviewing the causes of this latest delay and also the impacts on the overall project timeline.